Womenswear Jersey Designer - Cheltenham

The Role

Superdry is a genuine British success story that has grown to an annual turnover of £872m, with our brand already worth £1.6bn in total global consumer sales. We are a multichannel operator with well-developed and highly successful retail, ecommerce, wholesale and franchise businesses and customers in virtually every country in the world. We are well on our way to achieving our goal of becoming a global digital brand.

With the recent appointment of Phil Dickinson as Creative Director, this truly is an amazing time to join the Superdry Design team and develop your career under the guidance of an industry leader. This is a brilliant opportunity for a talented Designer, to join our Foundation Jersey team and be pivotal in the development of our collection. You will be versatile and dynamic in order to drive newness and innovation across the category and most importantly, will be massively passionate about design.

You will

- Support the development of the category strategy for your area
- Be an ambassador and influencer of category commerciality, our Brand DNA and innovation within the team and wider business
- Lead and take ownership of your category option counts and sampling
- Collaborate with key stakeholders to influence your category and challenge the status quo where necessary to deliver the category strategy
- Support Heads of Department and Design Managers to shape the range and deliver the product vision
- Use product knowledge and presentation skills to own and engage others in your category vision at key business presentations
- Produce creative and innovative designs with clear tech packs to produce 'right first time' samples
- Proactively action and/or follow briefs in new trim and labelling requirements for product and design spec packs
- Think about the core balance and newness, taking considered risks with key shapes and colours to maintain credibility and interest in the range
- Actively contribute to the development of the sourcing strategy for your range
- Produce design overviews and product information required by other Superdry business functions such as selling events/marketing/styling and PR
- Design products to achieve the brands pricing architecture – good, better, best
- Identify and deliver detailed style direction to develop existing products, as well as proposing new product opportunities for the range
- Combine knowledge of the market, emerging trends, fabric innovation and strategic direction from senior management to define the aesthetic direction for the product area implementing this direction and innovation into the development of the range
- Attend fit sessions with the technical team in order to maintain fit consistency within the product area
- Manage relationships with key suppliers to drive performance within the range
